"In concert, Craig Werth shines as an exceptional singer and writer, a natural story teller -- humorous and poignant. ...His instrumental accompaniment is equally brilliant ... it all makes for a magical experience!" - David Francey

"His songs, gems of communication, are made with a voice of pure beauty and instrumental work so precise that it's a wonder he finds the room to get so much honest soul into them." - David Matheson, Toronto-based producer/founding member of Moxie Frövous

"Craig really made a name for himself at our festival. Our attendees were delighted with his songwriting skills and creativity, stage presence and ability to connect with his audience. Book him!" - Di Walker, Director Turtle Hill Folk Festival, NY

"In recent years Craig Werth has been applying his considerable talents as a multi-instrumentalist to accompany Juno award-winning songwriter David Francey, but his naturally modest demeanor in that role belies the fact that he is a truly gifted songwriter in his own right. As an inspired musician and a perceptive and emotive writer, it is when he applies his musical prowess to his own songs that the depth of his artistry is revealed." - Jim Payne, producer-writer-performer, Newfoundland ■
